"praCh is phenomenal! praCh is a bi-lingual Khmer-American rapper. He's smart, raw, talented, inspired, and so so cool. I saw him performed two years ago in DC and he blew me away! I don't normally listen to rap, but this man had me off my seat, bopping my head up and down, laughing, and eyes glued on him. When I turned to my neighbors, I saw elder Khmer men and women doing the same. praCh is a treasure to our community."
